Advisor’s Report (Mr. Miller):

Mr. Miller told the assembly that we will be attending the NJASC Winter Convention on Tuesday January 8. Brooklawn will be getting an award for tenth year Honor School. We have finished the application for the National Gold Council of Excellence award, and will be sending it to NASC by the end of January.

Mr. Miller announced that the eighth graders will be getting a diploma name and gown payment form with their Marking Period 2 Report Cards. The deadline to hand these forms in with payment is Friday February 29. Permission forms for Dorney Park will go out in March.

Mr. Miller also reminded everyone that they must attend the committee meetings! The committee chairs will no longer excuse anyone unless they have a good reason to be excused. If you give an invalid excuse, five points will be taken off. In order to go to the NJASC Spring Awards Program at Six Flags you must have 60 Incentive Points. If you participated in B.I.G. Night then you got 5 points, and if you attend B.L.T. Saturday, you will get 15 points.

Mr. Miller told everyone that it is almost time to think about running for office in the April General Elections. Students interested in becoming a candidate must do the following:

- 6th graders must attend B.L.T. Saturday
- 7th graders must attend B.L.T. Saturday and successfully complete the Candidate Training Course, which is held in February and March.
